

You know as well as I do that the BELLS still dominate in the market and the infrastructure. Letting them off the hook now will stifle the incredible innovation that has been a blessing since the monopoly was dissolved. Please don't return us to those days.